

Want to help ensure that voters have fair & clean elections? Are you energetic & friendly? Do you have 2-3 hours to spare on June 5th?

Protect Voting Rights for the June 5, 2012 Primary Election!

MCLE Credit for Attending Training

Why Poll Monitor?

- Poll monitoring ensures that Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) voters are gaining access to multi-lingual resources on Election Day.
- Monitoring helps protect the rights of AAPI voters
- This project makes sure that AAPI voters are not turned away from the polls on Election Day

Want to volunteer as a poll monitor? It's easy!

1. Attend a two-hour training
2. Be available to volunteer for 2.5 hours the morning of June 5th
3. Be able to drive to two polling sites in Los Angeles County
4. Bilingual ability is a plus, but not necessary

Poll Monitoring Training

Thurs. May 24th
6:30 - 8:30pm

Trainings held at APALC offices, 1145 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles

The training is for individuals who wish to volunteer as poll monitors during the June 5, 2012 primary election.

Food will be provided, along with one hour of MCLE credit for attorneys

Training is co-sponsored by the Asian Pacific American Bar Association of Los Angeles County (APABA), Japanese American Bar Association (JABA), and South Asian Bar Association of Southern California (SABA).

The Asian Pacific American Legal Center (APALC), a 501c3 nonprofit legal and civil rights advocacy organization, conducts nonpartisan poll monitoring of election poll sites during major elections. The federal Voting Rights Act protects the right of all Americans to have equal access to the voting booth by requiring counties that have large populations of voters with language needs to provide bilingual language assistance to such voters. APALC organizes and trains poll monitors to serve as independent watchdogs on Election Day to make sure that all voters have equal access to the ballot.
