Low wage workers and other litigants who fight to obtain a judgment for payment of unpaid wages or other monetary damages often face a second challenge: collecting on the judgment. Come learn about challenges in enforcing a judgment in California courts, and how you can help. By the end of this training, whether you're a transactional attorney or a litigator, you will be prepared to enforce a judgment!

Topics covered include:

Perfecting Liens and Levying on Real Estate and Personal Property
How to conduct a Judgment Debtor Examination
When Affirmative Litigation is necessary
How to use a Mechanic's Lien
